without sliding off the trail: Special thanks to Barbara Alsteben for serving as Chief Druid and for keeping me company while I shivered at the Finish Line Thanks also to Charlie Alsteben

① ③ ④

Due to the fact that several runners disappeared from the field at this event, the race dictator would like to take this opportunity to absolve himself from all responsibility for lost participants.

Mud Grand Prix III will be Monday, September 22, at 6 p.m. The equinox is actually due to occur at 2:07 EDT, but it seems somewhat impractical to start at that hour on a weekday. If this bothers you, you may bow to the east or west - whichever you prefer - at that hour.

For those of you who like to think and plan ahead, Mud Grand Prix IV will take place at 8:56 a.m. on Sunday, December 21, 1980.

Hoping to see you all Sept. 22,

L.O. RUN
